INTRODUCTION

R. L. POLK & CO., publishers of more than 750 city, county, state and national Directories, present to subscribers and the general public, this, the 1951 edition of the Crocker-Langley San Francisco City Directory.

Confidence in the continued growth of San Francisco's industry, population and wealth, and in the advancement of its civic and social activities, will be maintained as sections of this Directory are consulted, for the Directory is a mirror truly reflecting San Francisco to the world.

The enviable position occupied by R. L. POLK & CO.'S Directories in the estimation of the public throughout the country, has been established by rendering the best in Directory service. With an unrivaled organization, and having had the courteous and hearty cooperation of the business and professional men and residents, the publishers feel that the result of their labors will meet with the approval of every user, and that the San Francisco Directory will fulfill its mission as a source of authentic information pertaining to the city.

Five Major Departments

The five major departments are arranged in the following order:—

THE POSTAL ZONE GUIDE, on white paper, appears in pages 17 to 19. This section is reproduced verbatim from copy supplied by the postal authorities.

THE STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE, on white paper, is embraced in pages 21 to 38.

THE ALPHABETICAL LIST OF NAMES of residents and business and professional concerns is included in pages 45 to 1435, on white paper. This is the only record in existence that aims to show the name, marital status, occupation and address of each adult resident of San Francisco, and the name, official personnel, nature and address of each firm and corporation in the city. A special feature of this section is the designation of tenant-owned homes.

THE BUYERS' GUIDE, preceding the Classified and separately paged from 1 to 124, on goldenrod paper, contains the advertisements of leading manufacturing, commercial and professional interests of San Francisco. The advertisements are indexed under headings descriptive of the business represented. This is reference advertising at its best, and merits a survey by all buyers eager to familiarize themselves with sources of supply. In a great metropolis and port city like San Francisco, the necessity of having this kind of information immediately available, is obvious. General appreciation of this fact is evidenced by the many reference users of this City Directory service.

THE CLASSIFIED BUSINESS DIRECTORY is included in pages 1561 to 1704, on yellow paper. This department lists the names of all business and professional concerns in alphabetical order under appropriate headings. This feature constitutes an invaluable and indispensable catalog of the numerous interests of the community. The Directory is the common intermediary between buyer and seller. As such it plays an important part in the daily activities of the commercial and professional world. More buyers and sellers meet through the Classified Business Directory than through any other medium.

Municipal Publicity

The Directory reflects the achievements and ambitions of the city, depicting in unbiased terms what it has to offer as a place of residence, as a business location, as a port, as a manufacturing site and as an educational center. To broadcast this information, the publishers have placed copies of this issue of the Directory in Directory Libraries, where they are readily available for free public reference, and serve as perpetual and reliable advertisements of San Francisco.

The San Francisco Directory Library

Through the courtesy of the publishers of the San Francisco City Directory, a Directory Library is maintained in their offices at 604 Mission St., for free reference by the general public. This is one of more than 600 Directory Libraries installed in the chief cities of the U. S. and Canada by members of the Association of North American Directory Publishers, under whose supervision the system is operated.

The publishers appreciatively acknowledge the recognition by those progressive business and professional men who have demonstrated their confidence in the City Directory as an advertising medium, with assurance that it will bring a commensurate return.

R. L. POLK & CO.,
Publishers.

HISTORY

San Francisco is located centrally on the coast in 37° 47′ 22-25″ n. latitude and 122° 25′ 40-76″ w. longitude. It is situated on a peninsula bounded on the west by the Pacific Ocean, on the north and east by the Bay of San Francisco, and on the south by wooded hills and fertile valleys. Its elevation extends from sea level to 933.6 feet city datum. The city covers an area of 44.82 square miles and is built principally on hills. The population as of April 1, 1940, was 634,536 (U. S. Census). The preliminary figure of the 1950 U. S. Census is 760,753.

The San Francisco Bay Region was discovered in July, 1769, by Don Gaspar de Portola's soldiers, who were seeking the Monterey Bay. In 1775, Don Manuel Ayala sailed the first ship through the Golden Gate into San Francisco Bay. The San Carlos was the name of the vessel.

Years before, however, Sir Francis Drake had brought his vessel, the Golden Hind, close to the Golden Gate and ran her ashore at what is now known as Drake's Bay. This was in 1579, and the first religious service in the English language was held on the Pacific Coast by the chaplain of the Golden Hind.

In 1776 a land expedition commanded by Col. Juan Bautista de Anza arrived on the San Francisco peninsula and established the Presidio and the Mission Dolores. In 1777, Padre Junipero Serra, father of the California missions, arrived in San Francisco. The settlement was known as Yerba Buena until 1847, when it became San Francisco.

In 1806 the Russians attempted to establish themselves in and about San Francisco. They started a settlement at Fort Ross, near Santa Rosa, but after a few years gave it up, disposing of all movable fixtures and arms to Capt. John A. Sutter, of Sacramento.

In 1846 the United States declared war on Mexico, and on July 9 of that year, Capt. John B. Montgomery, of the U. S. Navy, arrived in the Sloop-of-War "Portsmouth" and raised the American flag in what is now Portsmouth Square; thus without great excitement San Francisco passed from Spanish to Mexican and, finally, American, rule.

Probably San Francisco's greatest excitement came with the discovery of gold in 1848. People rushed here by every known mode of transportation and in thousands. The population increased rapidly and the port became the most important on the Pacific Coast, which position it has steadily maintained.

Because of the number of lawless individuals here during the 1850's the citizens organized the Vigilance Committee and after a short campaign succeeded in ridding the city of the lawbreakers.

GOVERNMENT

San Francisco has a consolidated City and County government, with legislative powers vested in a board of supervisors of eleven members, five and six being elected every two years for four-year terms. The Mayor. Treasurer, Assessor, City Attorney, Public Defender, District Attorney, Sheriff, and Superior and Municipal Court Judges are elected by the people and serve terms of four years. The Mayor receives $20,000 a year. The Chief Administrative Officer, appointed by the Mayor but thereafter having permanent tenure, receives $18,000 per annum. The Controller, appointed by the Mayor, subject to confirmation by the Supervisors, also has tenure. The Mayor appoints members of and supervises police, fire, civil service, public utilities, park and recreation, welfare, library and city planning boards or commissions, and may remove his appointees except civil service, public utilities and welfare commissioners. The Mayor also has a power of veto over legislation.

The San Francisco Unified School District and the City and County have coterminous boundaries. Members of the Board of Education are nominated by the Mayor and passed upon by the voters.

San Francisco has operated under five charters, granted in 1850, 1856, 1861, 1898 and 1932.

Initiative and referendum clauses were first embraced in the 1898 charter.

Mayor James Rolph, Jr., took office in 1911 and served five successive terms, until he became Governor of the State. In 1931 he was succeeded by Angelo J. Rossi, who served until 1944, when he was succeeded by Roger D. Lapham, who pledged himself in advance to one term only. Mayor Elmer E. Robinson took office Jan. 8, 1948, for a four-year term.

HARBOR AND COMMERCE

Centered in the San Francisco Bay Area, San Francisco is an important port of general commerce, handling a large and valuable domestic and foreign trade. It is the main gateway of commerce for the vast territory of the Central Pacific Coast Area and Intermountain States. The Bay extends from the Golden Gate to the confluence of the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers on the northeast, and to a point near San Jose on the south, covering an area of 450 square miles. The deep-water commerce enters San Francisco Bay through the mile-wide Golden Gate, and thus shipping is afforded natural protection in the waters of the Bay. To this has been added a comprehensive system of docking and berthing facilities, rail and freight connections, modern and well-equipped warehouses, etc. San Francisco harbor has 18 miles of berthing space; there are 222 acres of pier and wharf area, with a capacity of 4,792,100 tons of cargo; 43 modern piers; facilities to dock the largest vessels; several drydocks; 61 miles of harbor trackage connecting piers and warehouses; foreign-trade zone; and modern grain, refrigeration and banana terminals.

The harbor is controlled by the State of California and is governed by the State Board of Harbor Commissioners appointed by the Governor. Of the 43 piers, most of them are assigned to steamship companies having their own fleets and operating their own schedules. San Francisco harbor facilities are valued at more than $100,000,000.

The water-borne cargo tonnage of San Francisco Bay is foremost on the Pacific Coast and high among those of the nation's ports.

Exports during 1949 amounted to..$311,469,972

Imports during 1949 amounted to..$212,614,866

The principal exports by value have been cotton (unmanufactured); fruits, dried and evaporated; petroleum products; milk, canned, evaporated and dried; medical and pharmaceutical preparations; and electrical machinery and apparatus.

The principal imports have been coffee, copra, lead ores, concentrate sugar, paper, jute, burlap and nuts.

The 1948 report of the U. S. Army Engineers shows the distribution of the cargo tonnage, domestic and foreign, as follows:

Total tonnage, San Francisco Bay	36,064,325
Foreign tonnage	2,885,902
Inland waterway tonnage	13,958,643
Domestic coastwise tonnage	19,219,780

Besides the movement of commodities by water, there is a large rail traffic in San Francisco; during 1950 it reached 183,696 freight-car movements.

San Francisco also is the ocean port for the great inland empire of California, 500 miles in length and 50 miles wide and containing 16,100,000 acres of irrigable land, 5,000,000 acres of which is under irrigation.

San Francisco is normally a port of call for ships serving numerous trade routes.

TRANSPORTATION

Distribution Facilities—A vast transportation network, including transcontinental rail and highway facilities, air transport services, and steamship lines, converges in San Francisco, bringing unexcelled transportation services to local industry and business. San Francisco's fortunate geographic position on the Pacific Coast, combined with excellent distribution facilities, makes it possible for business and industry located here to serve a larger portion of the Western markets at lower distribution costs than can be reached from any other Pacific Coast city.

Rail

San Francisco is served directly by four Class I railroads operating more than 27,000 miles of line. These railroads with their connections thoroughly blanket California and neighboring states, and by means of seven major transcontinental routes and connecting routes provide fast, dependable service to and from all parts of the U. S., Canada and Mexico. Passenger trains second to none are operated to and from the city. Reciprocal switching arrangements are in effect, under which the line-haul carrier will absorb the charges of the switching carrier on competitive traffic. Over 50 railroads maintain off-line agencies here.

State Belt Railroad—These four railroads connect with the State Belt which serves the San Francisco piers and many industries near the waterfront. They absorb the Belt's switching charge on line-haul carload traffic and, in part, on interline switching movements subject to stated minimum revenue per car.

L. C. L. Service—Store-door pick-up and delivery service for less-than-carload traffic is available between San Francisco and practically all points in California and neighboring states, including over-night service to points in the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys, along the Coast, and Los Angeles.

Water

Fast new freighters provide regular service between San Francisco and the Hawaiian Islands, Australia, New Zealand, the South Seas, the Orient, Central and South America. the West Indies, Europe, South Africa and North Africa, also the Atlantic and Gulf coasts of the U. S. Luxurious and reconverted passenger liners operate to the Hawaiian Islands, the Orient and around the world. Limited passenger accommodations are available on freighters to Australia, the Orient, Central and South America, Europe, Puerto Rico, South Africa, and the East Coast of the U. S. Barge services for bulk and general cargo are maintained to points on San Francisco Bay and connecting waters.

Highway

Truck Lines—Over forty common-carrier truck lines provide scheduled service between San Francisco and points in California and neighboring states. Overnight service is available to all important points in California and to southern Oregon and western Nevada. In addition, more than 600 truck operators having headquarters or agencies in San Francisco hold intrastate permits from the Public Utilities Commission of California or interstate permits from the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Bus Lines—Bus lines radiate north, east and south, providing frequent service between San Francisco and all important points in California and the eleven Western states. Four lines provide transcontinental service. Sightseeing buses operate between San Francisco and neighboring points of interest, as well as in the city proper. Buses and limousines are available for charter.

Air

San Francisco is the major air terminal of the Pacific. Its huge international airport is still being expanded under a multi-million-dollar program to accommodate a constantly-increasing flow of air traffic to and from all parts of the nation and the world.

Four of America's largest certified carriers, another which is the West's leading feeder service, four overseas lines. and the two leading air-freight lines all render service from San Francisco in many directions. There also are nine non-certificated lines. Many of the world's air lines which do not directly serve the city have ticket offices or traffic representatives here. Charter services also are available.

Two of the world's largest carriers have immense maintenance bases at the San Francisco airport. and other lines maintain servicing facilities which will be expanded under the development program now in progress. Plans have been completed for a new passenger terminal and administration building.

Charter services, flight training and facilities for private planes are available at many smaller airports in the vicinity of San Francisco.

MANUFACTURING

The manufacturing industries in San Francisco comprise an important part of the city's activities, leading the nine major fields of activity in San Francisco in insured employees and amount of payroll. About one-fifth of all the people covered by unemployment insurance engaged in industry and business in San Francisco were employed by the manufacturing industries in 1949. The ratio rose to one-third during the war period, due to emphasis on production of war goods, but the current trend is toward the pre-war ratio.

Many of the large key industries in the San Francisco Metropolitan Area, with their plants outside the corporate city limits, have their headquarters in San Francisco, from which they conduct their finances, purchases, and sales.

BAY REGION MARKET DEVELOPMENTS IN 1950

Population

Bay Region (twelve-county) population of 3,168,981 in 1950, preliminary U. S. Census, represents an increase of 1,102,891 persons, or 53.4% in ten years. This growth exceeded the growth of all but four states—California, New York, Texas and Michigan—and the total population exceeded that of 32 states. The Bay Area (nine-county) population amounted to 2,652,334, or 918,026 above 1940, or 52.9%. The growth in this area exceeded the growth of all but five states—California, New York, Texas, Michigan and Ohio.

Employment

Estimated employment in the San Francisco—Oakland Metropolitan Area (six counties) in December, 1950, amounted to 964,200. Unemployment was estimated at 35,500, bringing the total labor force for this area to 999,700, or about 59,000 higher than the year before. The employment was distributed as follows: Agriculture, 14,300; forestry and fishing, 1,200; construction, 62,000; finance, 62,700; government, not elsewhere classified, 94,500; manufacturing, including shipyards, 194,300; mining, 1,000; retail trade, 179,800; wholesale trade, 58,400; service, 198,200; transportation and utilities, 97,800. Total employment in the manufacturing industries exclusive of shipyards averaged 164,000 during 1950, compared to 158,000 in 1949.

Industrial Development

During 1950 in the Bay Region (twelve counties), 509 industrial projects with outlays of $104,118,877 were reported, compared to 458 projects with outlays of $56.312,170 in 1949. Of the total in 1950, 372 were expansions with outlays of $88.644,027 and 137 were new plants with outlays of $15,473,850. In northern California there were 50 additional industrial projects with outlays of $13,735,000, bringing the total for the entire area to 559 projects with outlays of $117,852,877.

Finance

1950 Bay Area (five cities) bank debits of $39.3 billion gained 10.9% over 1949 and accounted for 30.3% of the Twelfth District transactions.

Trade

Retail department store sales during 1950 in the San Francisco-Oakland Metropolitan Area were 7% above 1949, compared to 7% in northern California, 5% in southern California and 6% in the Twelfth District. Wholesale sales, based on Pacific Coast reports, during the first eleven months were up 17%, compared to 13% in the nation, and November inventories were up 12% compared to 18% for the nation.

Construction and Real Estate

Total construction value in San Francisco and Alameda counties during 1950 was up 23.1%. New single-family dwelling units connected with utilities during 1950 in the Bay Area (nine counties) amounted to 33,429, or 27.3% above 1949. Multi-family dwelling units completed in the San Francisco, East Bay, North Bay and San Jose divisions of the Pacific Gas & Electric Co. totaled 2,429 in 1950, compared to 1,947 in 1949; and the San Francisco Peninsula Division accounted for 87% of the multi-family units. New single-family dwelling units in the northern California territory of the Pacific Gas & Electric Co. were reported at 64,448, or 20.5% above the same period the previous year.

Real estate deeds recorded in 1950 in the Bay Area (eight counties) amounted to 126,634 and were 27.1% above 1949. There were 124,814 deeds of trust amounting to $881,658,435, or an increase of 40.4% in number and 50.5% in amount.

Inter-City Traffic Movements

Vehicular traffic over the world's two largest bridges established new annual highs, with Bay Bridge crossings totaling 28,912,579, or 5.8% above 1949, and Golden Gate Bridge crossings totaling 9,558,983—6% above 1949.

Average daily two-way passenger trips by all means of transportation to and from San Francisco through East Bay, the Peninsula and North Bay gateways amounted to 192,000, according to the 1950 survey. The East Bay accounted for 54%, the Peninsula for 31%, and the North Bay for 15%.

SAN FRANCISCO DEVELOPMENTS IN 1950

Trend

General business activity in San Francisco in 1950, sparked by new highs in financial transactions, construction, production, employment, shipping and airport traffic, attained the highest level on record—8.3% above 1949, and December activity soared 18.4% over a year before.

Traffic

San Francisco Airport 1950 traffic rose to new highs, with plane traffic of 82,151, or 4.9% above 1949; passengers on and off numbered 1,197,694, or 15.3% above 1949; air freight, loaded and unloaded, of 32,419,405 pounds soared 24.8%; and air mail poundage of 17,500,347 rose 17%. Freight-car movements increased 5.1%; number of express shipments by rail, 5.5%, and by air, 7.3%; vegetable receipts in car-lots or equivalents were up 2.8%; but live stock slaughtered was off 6.1%.

Living Costs

Cost of goods purchased in San Francisco during 1950 was 1.7% above 1949, based on quarterly averages, but the December, 1950, costs were at a new all-time high, 3.9% above September, 1950, and 6.6% above December a year before. The U. S. Department of Labor index for cost of goods in San Francisco on Dec. 15, 1950, was 182.8, compared to the previous all-time high of 177.1 in September, 1948. Food costs were up 10.7%; apparel, 5.7%; house furnishings, 12.5%; rent, 2.6%; fuel, electricity and ice, 2.7%; and miscellaneous, 1.7%, in December, 1950, over December, 1949.

FINANCE

Financial Capital—San Francisco, the financial and insurance capital of the West, is headquarters of the world's largest bank and is the nation's second most important financial center. Seven of the nation's 100 largest commercial banks are located in San Francisco.

The Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco is the headquarters of the Twelfth Federal Reserve District, which ranked third in volume of business during 1949 measured by bank debits.

Many hundreds of firms with national reputation have established their Western headquarters in San Francisco, and some, their national headquarters, including railroad and banking systems of world rank.

Stock Exchange—The expeditious handling of widely-diversified financial transactions has contributed greatly to the sound industrial and trade relations between San Francisco and the Western regional markets. The San Francisco Stock Exchange early in 1949 continued to hold its place as the nation's second largest regional security market.

Banking—There are 18 banks in San Francisco, several of which operate branches. A few banks with headquarters here operate branch systems throughout the state. Thirteen banks are under State supervision—six commercial, two commercial and savings; two commercial, savings and trust; one strictly savings, and two savings and trust, and one title insurance company operating a trust department. There are five national banks and each has a trust department; the trust departments are under State supervision.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS

First comes the group in the Civic Center, declared by the Duke of Connaught to be the finest thing of its kind in the world. The group consists: (1) City Hall, of classic design, surmounted by an immense dome, higher than the dome of the Capitol at Washington; cost, $4,000,000. (2) Exposition Auditorium, seating capacity of 12,000 in the main auditorium, with numerous small halls; cost, $2,000,000. (3) San Francisco Public Library; cost, $1,500,000. (4) State Building; cost, $1,000,000. (5) War Memorial group of buildings, as a part of Civic Center; cost, $4,000,000, consisting of Civic Opera House, American Legion halls, etc. The San Francisco Federal Building cost $3,000,000.

The California Palace of the Legion of Honor, in Lincoln Park, overlooking the Golden Gate, is a replica of the Palace of the Legion of Honor in Paris. It was presented to the City. The structure cost $2,000,000. Other leading public buildings are the U. S. Mint, located at Market St. and Duboce Ave., built in 1937; the Post Office Building, corner of 7th and Mission streets; and the Ferry Building, at the foot of Market St. on the waterfront, built by the State in 1896 at a cost of $1,000,000. The Ferry Building is 659 feet long and 156 feet wide, and in addition to serving as a ferryboat terminal, contains many State offices. The Customs House and U. S. Appraiser's Building represents an expenditure of more than $4,000,000. In Golden Gate Park are located the deYoung Memorial Museum, Academy of Sciences, Steinhart Aquarium, and Museum of Anthropology. At Kearny and Washington streets is the Hall of Justice, erected in 1910 at a cost of $1,000,000, containing police courts and the criminal department of the superior court. The Golden Gate Bridge, costing $35,000,000, was opened to traffic in May, 1937, and the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge, costing $78,000,000, was opened to vehicular traffic Nov. 12, 1936. San Francisco East Bay Terminal (at Mission and 1st streets) is a $2,000,000 structure opened to interurban train service Jan. 15, 1939. The $2,730,000 Rincon Annex Post Office was opened in 1940. (See also "Social Features.")

PARKS

San Francisco is noted for its beautiful and extensive parks. There are 49 parks and 77 playgrounds, with a total acreage of 3,434. Still others are under development. In addition to the municipal parks, the several Government reservations, the largest of which is the Presidio, comprising 1,542 acres, all go toward augmenting the aggregate. The area given does not include the numerous golf courses in and about the city. More than $15,000,000 has been expended on municipal parks since 1870. All of San Francisco's parks are "man-made." Originally only sand dunes marked the spots where today are gardens of rare flowers, shrubs and giant trees. Even lakes, streams, waterfalls, hills, valleys and dales were developed by man, to say nothing of the miles of walks, bridle paths and boulevards traversing the parks. Golden Gate Park is one of the world's most noted playgrounds. It comprises 1,013 acres and is about three miles long and a half-mile wide, extending from Stanyan St. on the east to the Pacific Ocean on the west, and lies in the midst of San Francisco's choice residential districts. In the park are many museums and monuments, aviary, aquarium, music temple, stadium, tennis courts, baseball grounds, football grounds, trotting and packing horse track, athletic field and running track paddocks, and children's playgrounds. There are more than 25 miles of improved driveways in the park. Wild animals of many species are found here, while every bird and squirrel known to California flies or roams at will through the dense woods and shrubbery. At the western end of the park is to be seen the sloop "Gjoa," the only vessel that ever navigated the Northwest Passage. It was given to San Francisco by its owner, the late Capt. Roald Amundsen, explorer and discoverer of the South Pole. The gift was accepted by San Francisco, June 16, 1909. The ship was hauled upon the beach and is protected by a high iron fence.

SOCIAL FEATURES

Events—The cosmopolitan character of San Francisco is well portrayed by the interesting and diversified events which take place daily. The citizen or visitor will find many educational things of interest, such as lectures, concerts, readings, recitals, and special exhibits of drawing, painting, sculpture, and other works of art.

Art Galleries—Three public art galleries and several semi-public galleries offer exhibits and collections of national and international fame. The M. H. deYoung Memorial Museum, the San Francisco Museum of Art, and the California Palace of the Legion of Honor attract hundreds of thousands of visitors annually.

Library—The main Public Library is located in the Civic Center. There are 21 branches and six depositories. This system has more than 610,000 volumes. About 2,500,000 books are circulated for home reading. In addition to the public libraries, there are nearly 100 private and special libraries, including technical and institutional. There are also numerous circulating libraries.

Public Buildings—The Civic Auditorium, wth a seating capacity of 9,136, contains a magnificent organ and is in use for a variety of events daily throughout the year. The Civic Opera House and the War Memorial Building provide a home for opera, the symphony orchestra, and a permanent war relics museum. San Francisco was the first city in the nation to have a civic opera house. It has a seating capacity of 3,285. The Civic Opera House and the War Memorial buildings were chosen for the meeting place of the United Nations delegates who assembled there from April 25 to June 26, 1945, to construct the charter of the organization.

Clubs—There are numerous societies, clubs, lodges and fraternal groups beside the civic, historical, military, religious, and sporting groups. San Francisco contains many foreign colonies where the daily life and social affairs familiar to their native countries have been re-established here.

Churches—San Francisco has 353 churches, representing many denominations. The congregations include people of many nationalities, such as English, German, Italian, French, Spanish, Scandinavian, Russian and Chinese.

PUBLIC HEALTH

San Francisco public health facilities are efficient and modern in every detail, including a bacteriological laboratory, a chemical laboratory, consolidated inspection services, the San Francisco Hospital, the Laguna Honda Home for aged indigents, the Hassler Health Farm for convalescent tuberculosis cases, six emergency hospitals, child welfare centers, well-baby clinics and other health control facilities scattered throughout the city.

RECREATION AND CULTURE

San Francisco is a city of supreme and exotic beauty, a city of many interesting aspects, and a cultural and vacation center for those who like to explore. The vacation experts, Californians, Inc., say—"There is the storybook part that is not on the map—the things of the city that guidebooks only hint at—small in area as great cities go, it is America's most cosmopolitan city. Almost surrounded by the sea, it's like being on shipboard all the time—there's salt in the ocean breeze, filling you with buoyant energy."

Some Outstanding Points of Interest and Their Characteristics

The Waterfront—"Threshold to all the world."

San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge—"World's largest, with foundations of greatest depth."

Golden Gate Bridge—"Longest single span in the world."

Latin Quarter—"Spreads up the slopes of Telegraph Hill and on to Fisherman's Wharf."

Educational Institutions—"Few cities in the world offer finer or more diversified facilities."

Chinatown—"Largest Chinese settlement in America."

Hotels, Restaurants—"Distinguished and distinctive."

Theatres—"Bid you to come forth for entertainment."

Downtown San Francisco—"Atmosphere all its own."

Civic Center, Auditorium, Opera—"First city to have a civic opera house and symphony concerts."

Parks, Museums, Sports—"Enough for days and days for spectators and participants alike."

Scenic Drives, Evenings—"Stunning vistas framed in the afterglow of sunset, and then, the lights."

Other facilities for outdoor activities embrace many golf courses in and adjacent to the city, including three San Francisco municipal courses; a yacht harbor; and several boat and swimming clubs.

There are approximately 95 theatres, ranging from several "Little Theatres" and a French theatre to the theatre with the largest seating capacity in the West. San Francisco has eight standard radio broadcasting stations, several frequency modulation stations, a coastal telegraph radio station for off-shore boats, and a coastal harbor radio station for boats in harbor.

A tour of San Francisco is refreshing and filled with many pleasant surprises. The city's delightful setting amidst sparkling waters and high hills is inspiring. Beautiful vistas, lovely homes, a happy climate, comfortable living, all combine to spread a romantic aura over the whole community and lend to its distinction.

CLIMATE

San Francisco is a clean city with a cool, bracing, equable, open-all-year-around climate. The daily mean maximum temperature is 62.6 degrees. The daily mean minimum temperature is 50.4 degrees. The average daily temperature range is 12.2 degrees.

The hours of fog over San Francisco Bay recorded by the Lighthouse Service averaged only 153 per year.

San Francisco is one of a few of nature's air-conditioned cities, relatively warm in winter and cool in summer. The long-time record of the Weather Bureau reveals that the sun shines in San Francisco during 66 of every 100 possible hours.

POPULATION AND CHARACTERISTICS

San Francisco Residents

The population of San Francisco on April 1, 1950, was 760,753 according to the preliminary U. S. Census, or 125,845 above 1940, and ranking San Francisco among the leading cities in the U. S. in numerical population gain. It is the eleventh largest city in the nation, based on population, but ranks close to first in several economic and social developments.

On April 1, 1940, the resident population, reported at 634,536, included 630,785 civilians and only 3,751 military. At about the peak of the nation's war production, on April 1, 1944, the resident civilian population had risen to 683,340 and the resident military had soared to 103,250, bringing the total resident population to 786,590. Near the end of the war, on Aug. 1, 1945, the special U. S. Census reported that San Francisco had 827,400 residents, including 59,753 military, 20,416 seamen on ships registered to San Francisco, and about 30,000 hotel occupants, or nearly 110,000 persons other than those living in owner-occupied and tenant dwellings.

Visitors and Commuters

People with regular occupations in the city, but living in the Bay Area, and the large number who come here for business and pleasure brought the average daily two-way passenger trips to and from San Francisco through the Peninsula, East Bay and North Bay gateways to about 192,000 during 1949, exclusive of water-borne arrivals and departures, compared to 105,800 in 1940 and 220,000 in 1945.

EDUCATION

Fine Facilities for Education and Research

The educational facilities available in San Francisco and the Bay Area cover all fields and are outstanding in the West and in their rank among national institutions. Few cities in the world offer finer or more diversified educational opportunities.

Enrollment in institutions of higher education in northern California is above the national average in relation to the population.

Higher education facilities include the public universities system, state colleges, public junior colleges, private four-year colleges and private junior colleges.

Besides the extensive research activities carried out by the larger universities of California and Stanford, a recent survey revealed at least 79 northern California organizations with research facilities which are expending upward of $20,000,000 a year in research activities.

Public Schools

There are 196 schools under the jurisdiction of the Department of Education of San Francisco, with a total average daily attendance of 177,581.

Other Schools

There are also, in addition to the public school system, a number of private, parochial, non-sectarian and technical schools. There are several thousand children in the city attending these private schools.

There are numerous privately-established schools in San Francisco which offer courses of training in practically all phases of business, art, dramatics, and the various trades.

Veterans' Training

Approved to offer training to war veterans under Public Law 346 at the end of 1948 were about 89 educational institutions in San Francisco, 209 in the Bay Area, and 315 in northern California. Included in this group are universities, colleges, junior colleges, high schools, medical schools, nursing schools, vocational schools and professional and semi-professional schools.

Universities and Colleges

The University of San Francisco and the San Francisco State College are located in the city. The University of California, at Berkeley, and Stanford University, at Palo Alto, are both within easy commuting distances of San Francisco. In addition, the University of California maintains several branches in San Francisco, including colleges of medicine, dentistry, pharmacy and law; and the California School of Fine Arts and Stanford University's colleges of dentistry and medicine also are located here. Other colleges in the more immediate area offering standard curricula include Dominican, Mills, San Francisco College for Women and St. Mary's.

SAN FRANCISCO

STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE

1951

Copyright, 1952, by R. L. Polk & Co.

EXPLANATIONS

in the following list the streets are arranged in alphabetical order.

According to the method adopted in this city for numbering buildings, Market Street is the starting point for numbers on all streets running from it in a northerly, southerly or westerly direction, and the water front for all streets running therefrom in a westerly or southwesterly direction. The numbers on all streets not commencing at Market Street or the water front run in conformity with the numbers of the main streets running parallel with them, except in the case of a few streets which are numbered in an irregular manner.

On all streets between the water front and Central Avenue the even numbers are on the right-hand side, and the odd numbers on the left, starting from the point of beginning. Beyond Central Avenue most of the streets have been numbered in a contrary manner. One hundred numbers, or as many thereof as are necessary, are allotted to each block bounded by main streets; for instance, Montgomery Street commences at Market, and the main streets, crossing as you proceed north are Sutter, Bush, Pine, etc. Therefore, any numbers between 1 and 100 will be found on the right or left-hand side of the street between Market and Sutter, between 100 and 200 from Sutter to Bush, between 200 and 300 from Bush to Pine.

In the streets which are numbered, a dash (—) indicates that the cross street does not extend to that side; (o), the street borders on the bay, or public park, cemetery, etc., consequently there are no buildings on blocks thus designated; (c), the street is not opened through the block, or is interrupted in its course at that point by a public square, cemetery, etc.; (e), end of street.

DIRECTORY PUBLISHERS FOR 750 CITIES

Polk City Directories have been the accepted basis for population listings in hundreds of American cities. These directories, compiled regularly, provide detailed information concerning the name, address, occupation and other important information about all adult residents of a city. In addition to local circulation, Polk cooperates in the maintenance of City Directory Reference Libraries in cities throughout the U.S. and Canada. The priceless ingredient of a City Directory is the accuracy with which it is made; accuracy is the product of experience; Polk has been compiling City Directories since 1870.

DIRECT MAIL ADVERTISING FOR LEADING INDUSTRIES

Polk's Direct Mail Advertising Division—one of the world's largest—specializes in high-quality, productive advertising. America's largest industries are Polk's long-time clients. Polk's direct mail advertising is complete . . . consultation, research, testing, creating, printing, producing, and distributing to selected prospects. Polk's production plants are geared to handle more than two million mailings daily. Included in its production facilities is the world's largest battery of imprinting presses and the world's largest installation of automatic typewriters. Polk's direct mail advertising services are dedicated to helping business men produce increased sales volume.

NATIONAL MAILING LISTS AND MAILING SERVICES

The people of America are in Polk's list files . . . all businesses, trades, professions, and vocations . . . obtained through personal canvass. Polk also lists all automobile and commercial vehicle owners—by make of car or truck, by model, by year, by state, county and city. Mailing lists of one kind or another, totaling more than 60,000,000 names a year, are compiled for Polk clients. Facilities for multigraphing, typing, letter-press or offset printing, questionnaires or letters, and complete addressing, imprinting and mailing services are available. Polk can reach the right prospects DIRECT, with the right kind of message.

AUTOMOBILE AND BUSINESS STATISTICAL HEADQUARTERS

Since 1922 Polk has been statistician for the automotive industry. Polk total count of passenger cars, trucks, motorcycles and trailers by make, by year model, is the only annual inventory of the country's automotive equipment. Polk's new car passenger and truck reports furnish manufacturers and dealers with a monthly recapitulation of all sales for each territory . . . The first business census of the U.S. was a Polk project, giving statistics covering the number of manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers for each state, county and town. Using Polk statistical services American business is able to plan intelligently its production, distribution and sales.

SURVEYS AND CONSUMER RESEARCH

Fast, accurate research surveys and analyses, based on experience gained through nation-wide home and business canvasses, are provided by the Polk Consumer Research Division.

POLK BANKER'S ENCYCLOPEDIA

Polk's semi-annual directory of the banks of the nation is the outstanding Directory in the banking field. Polk reports on the condition of the nation's banks, their officers and directors, including a detailed statement on each bank, as well as listing investment dealers, stock exchange members, insurance companies, and other general financial data.
